The Magic Of Sarawak Mulu Caves

Deep in the virgin tropical forest of Sarawak, along an unbroken 40km band of limestone peaks, lies one of earth's natural wonders - The Mulu Caves. Hidden away from the face of steep mountains to an elevation of 1,500meters, rivers disappear into these caves. A mysterious and magical world where the interior ripples with exciting discoveries. The Mulu Caves complex contains 4 Show Caves which you can journey - The Cave of the Winds, Clearwater Cave, Deer Cave and Lang's Cave. Gunung Api or Pinnacles is of special interest. Being the highest limestone mountain in Malaysia, Pinnacles possess a strange limestone spikes which figures a human face watching the park below. For those climbers who dream of watching sunrise from an elevated height of 45meters (148feet), climbing up the Pinnacles sure is a dream come true.
